upon all sheriffs and other magistrates who are conservators of the peace, to use all the powers conferred upon them by law in ar-resting and bringing to punishment all persons who disturb the public peace, by using violence against any of their fellow citizens, especially are you charged to bring to justice all who combine to practice violence against other persons on account of their political opinions, and if force should be employed to resist you in the discharge of your duties to an extent that you cannot overcome by the means provided by law, you are charged to make known that fact to this Department, that proper nessures may be taken in such cases. It is enjoined upon all citizens that they perform the duties of giving information of the State that they may come to the po sion of the State withou; being captured by the troops of the United States. It is fur ther enjoined upon all citizens of suitable age to enroll themselves in military organiations that they muy take part in the deense of the State.

All citizens who are embodied under the act of the last session of the General Assembly, popularly called the military law are notified test the law has been abrogated and the troops disburded. The commissions issued under it, as well as the commission under the act of the same session for the appointment of a Ma or General, have been annulled, and all diers and officers are enjoined to cease action in a military capacity. If those citizens who at the call of the late Governor have taken up arms, choose to return vol untarily to their homes, and to the peace-ful pursuit of their occupations, they will find in the present Executive a determina-tion to afford them all the security in his power, and there is no doubt entertaine that they will be unmolested.

The officers and troops belonging to the Canfederate States, who have invaded Missouri, are notified that it is against the and that their continuance in Missouri will be considered an act of war designed to bring upon our State the horrors of war, which Missouri desires to avoid.
